Remote Sensing / Working with Images

Dave Koger[1]

[1]Harris Corporation

Abstract

We will cover the basic vocabulary of the science, discuss—and show—which are the ideal sensors for each application: finding new oil and gas, off-shore oil seeps (and fish), old wells, old seismic tracks, astroblemes, $CO_2$ sequestration and geochemical anomalies; fresh water sources, surface damage and wildfire disasters. How supervised and unsupervised classifications.