

Horizontal Mississippian Fracture Completions in Oklahoma and Kansas

Hap Pinkerton
Halliburton

Abstract

Horizontal exploration of Mississippian age formations in Oklahoma has been ongoing since 2009. This presentation will discuss completion and stimulation types deployed and propose some production analysis techniques to help identify completion best practices in this highly diversified play.